

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT (M.S.)

---

Purpose

The Master of Science in Project Management program seeks to equip students to successfully implement projects through high-performing, empowered teams. The program's focus is on the project management techniques, tools, and methodologies that best serve the organization, tailored to the student's context and informed by Christian ethics. The knowledge and skills gained from this degree can benefit any organization, from large for-profit companies and governmental agencies to non-governmental organizations and other non-profit institutions.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Formulate Christian worldview perspectives when solving ethical dilemmas in project management.
- Evaluate and present scholarship relevant to project management based on the knowledge of literature, research, and industry best practices.
- Propose project-based solutions to business programs.
