

SEMINARY STUDIES (SEMI)

SEMI 505 Introduction to Ministry Studies 3 Credit Hour(s)

This course serves as an introduction to foundational concepts for ministry training. Special attention will be given to the competencies necessary for research and writing and Bible study tools.

Offered: Online

SEMI 510 Tools for Ministry Studies 3 Credit Hour(s)

Online Prerequisite: SEMI 505

This course introduces students to the basic tools and resources utilized in the study of Scripture and theology for the purposes of ministry, spiritual formation, and seminary training. Special attention is given to the tools in the Logos Bible Software program.

Offered: Online

SEMI 698 Practicum 3 Credit Hour(s)

Prerequisite: BIBL 500 and BIBL 505 and HOMI 600 and LEAD 500 and LEAD 600 and NBST 501 and NBST 502 and OBST 501 and OBST 502

This course provides a practical opportunity to engage in various aspects of ministry within a local ministry or para-church context. This course is designed to complement theoretical knowledge with real-world application, offering a transformative learning experience that prepares students for active participation and leadership within their faith communities.

Offered: Resident