

CREATIVE WRITING MAJOR (B.S.)

Purpose

This program will equip students to produce written works utilizing the conventions of creative genres while engaging readers through literary beauty, compelling stories, and imagined worlds. Students will learn to analyze information, break down complex concepts, formulate ideas, and produce original pieces. All of this creative engagement, will be grounded in a Christian worldview as student's learn to engage culture overtly and covertly with transcendent, biblical truths.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Analyze written pieces according to the best practices of a given genre.
- Create professionally written pieces according to the conventions of a particular genre.
- Analyze the nature of an author's worldview within literary pieces.

Programs of Study

Delivery Format: Online Only

- Creative Writing (B.S.) - Christian Literature - Online
- Creative Writing (B.S.) - English - Online
- Creative Writing (B.S.) - Journalism - Online

Career Opportunities

- Writer
- Editor
- Teacher
- Blogger
- Journalist