

STUDIO ART MAJOR (B.F.A.)

Purpose

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Studio Art major, which is considered a pre-professional degree, allows students to gain extensive practice-based coursework in the field of studio art.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Generate Art Work Utilizing a variety of Traditional media.
- Assess the efficacy of creative work in relation to its context.
- Formulate Conceptual solutions through creative projects.
- Create a fundamentally sound body of work that embodies standards of professional presentation.
- Demonstrate a specific artistic focus through content and/or form.

Program of Study

Delivery Format: Residential Only

- Studio Art (B.F.A.) - Resident

Career Opportunities

- Art Critic
- Craft or Fine Artist
- Conservator and Restorer
- Exhibitions Coordinator
- Fine Artist
- Gallery Owner
- Museum / Gallery Director
- Painter
- Sculptor