

WORSHIP LEADERSHIP MAJOR (B.M.)

Purpose

The Bachelor of Music in Worship Leadership major affords students the opportunity to examine the impact of worship on the evangelical culture. Students study worship and its application to music in a hands-on environment and through praxis education experience. Application is further made to 21st-century worship pedagogy through studies in contemporary improvisation, contextualization, leadership principles, and cultural analysis.

Program Learning Outcomes

The student will be able to:

- Demonstrate technical fluency, expressiveness, style, and professionalism in musical performance.
- Apply broad based knowledge of music through research in the areas of music history, music theory, and music literature.
- Develop contextually based worship strategies.
- Analyze leadership characteristics within musical contexts.
