

RELIGIOUS STUDIES (RLST)

RLST 489 Religious Studies Capstone 3 Credit Hour(s)

Prerequisite: BIBL 350 and THEO 350

This course is designed to allow the student to utilize skills and insights acquired during the completion of their undergraduate program. A range of biblical and theological concepts taught in the respective programs are reinforced, and new dimensions are explored. This ensures that the student masters the key ideas from their undergraduate program and that the student puts these concepts into practice so that they are prepared for future academic and vocational advancement.

Registration Restrictions: Senior Status

Offered: Resident

RLST 499 Biblical and Theological Studies Internship 3-6 Credit Hour(s)

Prerequisite: (BIBL 350 or BIBL 360) and (THEO 350 or THEO 360)

This internship will focus on both the programming and leadership aspects of ministry. It will be a supervised field experience at an approved site. Application procedures processed through the online application.

Registration Restrictions: Junior/Senior status; 3.00 GPA; 21 hours in the major

Offered: Resident